

WEATHER FACTS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Ohio: Fair weather, slightly warmer.

SPRINGFIELD, O.,
October 30, 1886.

ONE IN A HUNDRED

Men will wear $40 satin-lined Montagnac Beaver Overcoats. Ninety-nine in a hundred won't.

This sort of thing makes it essential to make and keep in stock more than one sort.

We have as many sorts as there are sorts to wear them, and every sort is calculated to be one profit, cheaper than any like quality in the state of Ohio.

Whatever amount of money you have set aside for an overcoat, see

THE WHEN

Stock before you spend it.

If $9 here is as good as $12 outside, you're likely to wear a When overcoat all winter.

Enough is being said daily, weekly, monthly and yearly to put you on track of the largest and only clothing stock in Springfield that is manufactured and sold under one firm name,

OWEN BROTHERS

With snow in the air, think of a warm stock of fur caps.

Alexis, Jockey and Turban shapes; think of boys' real sealskin caps selling at a dollar each. Think of Scotch caps, 35 and 40 cents.

We carry a stock of Derby hats for men who care more for the hat than for the name inside, $1.50, $2 and $2.50 instead of starting at $3, and ending at $4.

The finest soft hat in the land, $2; stick a pin in this, please, and pin the boys' polo caps at 10c.

Trousers have gained a point. They're here today in spring-bottom shapes at winter-bottom prices.

Children's suits and overcoats are at their best. Children's corduroy blouse suits are still $3 at the

The Bodies of the Dead Laid Out for Identification. The Brakeman Who Was the Cause of the Disaster Will Not Be Punished—Other News.

By the Associated Press.

PORTAGE, Wis., Oct. 30.—An old building at Rio was converted into a temporary morgue, yesterday, and therein repose all that is mortal of those who perished in the wreck of night before last. The bodies are placed upon sheets and the articles found near them in the wreck are laid upon the remains for the purpose of identification. In some cases identification will be impossible. Brakeman Wells, of Milwaukee, who left the switch open, causing the derailment, has fled, and his whereabouts are unknown. No effort will be made to capture him. The total number of the dead who were positively identified so far are Mrs. Conrad Scherer, Winona; Mrs. Rosa Jones, Rush Creek; Miss Mrs. Alvina Winter, Kalamazoo; Miss Mrs. Beebe, Kalamazoo; Miss Mrs. Brink, Ashland; Mr. Waltersford, Columbus; Sister Alphonse, Winona; Sister Donnelly, Winona. To this must be added the bodies of Albertine, who was in company with the two French-Canadians.

It is quite possible that there will be identified the names of John McLean, Joseph Plank and Frank Guyer, Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Chicago. These have not been positively identified yet.

An Opinion.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Attorney General Garland has given his opinion to the secretary of the treasury that national banks deposit interest-bearing bonds to secure their circulation and that called three per cent. bonds cannot be used as a basis of circulation.

$120,000 Stolen.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—From facts gleaned today from different shippers of money by the Adams Express Company Monday, the amount stolen in Monday night's robbery, is estimated at $100,000, and may aggregate $120,000.

The Pavilion.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 30.—The disabled steamer, Pavilion, now lies on the beach at Revere Island. The passengers were all safely removed.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

Governor Foraker Talks to the Globe-Republic on the Political Situation.

General Robinson May Get 25,000 Majority in the Coming Election.

—In the Morning Valley, Romeville Will Be Held—Other News.

Heard that Governor Foraker was in the city this morning on his way to Xenia, where he addresses a mammoth republican meeting this afternoon, a representative of the GLOBE-REPUBLIC hastened to the Pan-Handle station to interview him. The governor was found sitting in a car quietly reading the Cincinnati papers. He said that he did not announce his coming because he desired not to undergo the fatigue of a reception, as he was half dead from loss of sleep.

"Why," said he, "I haven't had three hours of sleep a night for four or five nights and I am quite worn out. Last night I addressed a large meeting at Sandusky, and did not retire until long after midnight and this morning at four o'clock I left Sandusky to come here. I expect to get some sleep on the cars but I met a party of friends on the train and consequently have not closed my eyes."

The governor was anxious to learn something definite concerning this district and seemed much pleased when assured that General Kennedy would certainly be the next congressman from this district.

"What do you think of the prospects of the republican state ticket?" asked the GLOBE-REPUBLIC.

"I do not doubt," replied the governor, "that we shall carry the state by at least 12,000. Indeed, I think General Robinson's majority will not be less than 15,000, and it may run up to 25,000."

"How will the vote be in the Hocking Valley?"

"It will not probably differ much from that of last fall. Both parties will about hold their own. Some of the men who have picked out with McBride and have known him ever since he wore dresses will vote against him. You know," said the governor, smiling, "that one's home people never find out that he is a great man until all the rest of the world knows it."

"How will Hamilton county go this fall?"

"Hamilton county will give a republican majority of 5,000 at least, and it may give 5,000 or 6,000. According to the Dan Dalton returns, Governor Hoadly had 250 majority over me in Cincinnati last fall, but this year republicans will come pretty near getting a full vote and a fair count down there. I had a campaign meeting at Xenia, 18,000 in the state, and if a full vote is polled General Robinson will get in Hamilton county."

"How is the feeling over the state?"

"It is very quiet in all the districts where I have been and the campaign has been fair and respectable. The republicans are anxious in the Sandusky district where I was last night, and I think Romeville will be very likely defeat Hunt."

As stated above, Governor Foraker speaks this afternoon at Xenia. He will speak in Dayton tonight and will conclude his part in the campaign on Monday afternoon at Mt. Vernon.

Charles L. Spencer came here from Xenia this morning to meet the governor and escort him to Xenia.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Siberia" at the Grand Theatre, "Neck and Neck" at Black's This Evening, and Future Dates.

GRAND.—"Siberia," grander and more fascinating than ever, with all their scenery, showed the daily impetus and weight of a grand drama. A denial is a confession unless it is as broad as the charge.

The speaker then brilliantly recounted the attempted usurpation of the legislature by the democrats—how they had tried to block legislation and how the scheme had miscarried by a stroke of providence in favor of the republican party as remarkable and unexpected as a stroke of lightning.

He then went on to show that the republicans were not only a force to be reckoned with, but that they were a force to be feared. He then went on to show that the republicans were not only a force to be reckoned with, but that they were a force to be feared.
